

THE STUDY OF NONWRITTEN CULTURAL MATERIALS

How Were World War I Posters Embraced by the Design Community in Pre-war Japan, and How Did They Inspire Japanese Designers?

TAJIMA Natsuko

Wheat Cultivation and Folklore through "Aizu Nousho (Aizu Agricultural Manual)" Records on agriculture and customs as non-written cultural materials

SASAKI Takeo

The Results of Wide Angle Research-the Review about "Japan's Fifteen-Year War seen from Propaganda Kamishibai"

ISHIYAMA Yukihiro

An Illustrated Magazine of Japanese Life as Folk Material: Its Information Gathering and Editing Frameworks and Local Folklore Depicted

ISHII Kazuho

Research on Kijiya Woodworkers and Rokuro Wood Lathes in Shikoku, Kyushu and Okinawa

OGURA Hiroki

Legends and Places Remembered in Connection with Xu Fu in Saga City

HUA Xuemei

Views on Immigrants from the Amami Islands to Brazil with an Emphasis on Undokai (Sports Festival) Organized by Comunidade Amami

KATO Saori

A Comparative Study of Shigandang (Ishigandou) from Northern and Southern China
—A Case Study in Shandong and Fujian Provinces

JIANG Mingchao

