

THE STUDY OF NONWRITTEN CULTURAL MATERIALS

An Image-reading of the Picture of Newly-appointed Governor's Procession in Pyongsaeing-do Attributed to Kim Hong-do in the Joseon Period, Korea

KIM Jeong Ah

A Study of Posters Created in China during the Pre-World War II Period:
The Characteristics of Chinese Posters Created Between the 1880s and the mid-1920s

TAJIMA Natsuko

The three "Taninomono" from the representation of bamboo

NAITO Hisayoshi

A study of Shinto religion and Chinese culture in rituals of Japanese metallurgical industrial —focusing on the Bellows Festival—

LIU Linlin

Proposal of Two Step/Two Route Theory on the Introduction of Rice Crops to the Japanese Archipelago

KONO Michiaki

Taiwanese Folk Tradition of Animal Sacrifice
—Focusing on Pigs—

WANG Haicui

The changes of the traditional technology for producing clay

WANG Li

Changes in the Authority of the Kumagaya Fan Festival in Relation to Other Festivals

SHITO Shinichi

Embracement of Ishigando (Stone Monuments) in the Amami Islands
—Focusing on Kikaijima, Amami Oshima, and Tokunoshima—

JIANG Mingchao

The Nine Tests of Mongolian Shamanism
—A Case Study from the Khorchin Region—

ZHANG Gaowa

A Study of Facial Tattoos on the Seediq People, an Indigenous Tribe in Taiwan Region

LI Gan

