

NO. 15
September, 2017

THE STUDY OF NONWRITTEN CULTURAL MATERIALS

The Study of Semi-shrines Sha and Shi in Taiwan during the Period of Japanese Colonial Rule TSAI Chintang

Official and Unofficial Semi-Shrines and Local Village Rituals in Korea under Japanese Rule: The Significance of Shrines in Villages AONO Masaaki

Myoken Passed Down in the Chichibu Area:
— Its Changes and Current Situation — KOMURA Sumie

An observation of The Grain Rain Day and the Residents' consciousness of Jiaodong Peninsular
— take Moye Island in Rongcheng City of Shandong Province as an example — JIANG Jing

Construction of cultural soft power of Chinese government from the achievement of intangible cultural heritage protection
— A Case Study on Intangible Cultural Heritage Elements Proclaimed by China, Japan and South Korea on the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage Lists — BAI Songqiang

From Beijing, the customs which bring good luck and avoid difficulties SAKAI Mika

